

NYU*GALLATIN SCHOOL OF INDIVIDUALIZED STUDY

Dear Eliane,

Congratulations! I am delighted to inform you that you have been admitted to the Master of Arts Program at New York University's Gallatin School of Individualized Study for the Fall 2023 semester. You have shown great initiative in choosing to design an interdisciplinary program that reflects your interests and we look forward to working with you to achieve your goals.

Courses for fall 2023 begin on Tuesday, September 5.

We want to take this opportunity to have you note that one or more of the courses you selected in your proposed program of study may be limited or restricted, or may require departmental approval to register. Please be sure to inquire with us and/or the following department(s) to learn more about your options for graduate study in the following areas: GSAS/Psychology. As you can imagine, it is very important to consider any potential course limitations and cross-registration policies prior to your matriculation in our program. We look forward to assisting you in this process!

FINAL/OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPTS

This offer of admission is conditional upon the satisfactory completion and documentation of any educational activity completed or in progress. Admitted students must conclude all academic activity in progress prior to enrolling in the Gallatin School. Please note: if you uploaded a scan of your transcripts in your application, it is not considered official by the university. To submit your final/official transcript, please have the registrar of your degree-granting school send it to: gallatin.gradadmissions@nyu.edu. We prefer that all transcripts are sent electronically through companies such as Parchment, eScrip or the Student Clearinghouse. If you are only able to send a hard copy, please reach out to John Bradley.

On behalf of everyone at Gallatin, I congratulate you on this exciting opportunity. We look forward to seeing you!

Best regards,
